

1969-2009 • De 1969 à 2009

Celebrating 40 years of legal contraception in Canada

Célébrons les 40 ans de la contraception légalisée au Canada

True or False Quiz: Sexually Transmitted Infections (STIs)

1. T F A person can have an STI and not know it.
2. T F It is normal for women to have some vaginal discharge.
3. T F Once you have had an STI and have been cured, you can't get it again.
4. T F HIV is mainly present in semen, blood, vaginal secretions, and breast milk.
5. T F Chlamydia and gonorrhoea can cause pelvic inflammatory disease.
6. T F A pregnant woman who has an STI can pass the disease on to her baby.
7. T F Most STIs go away without treatment, if people wait long enough.
8. T F STIs that aren't cured early can cause sterility.
9. T F Birth control pills offer excellent protection from STIs.
10. T F Condoms can help prevent the spread of STIs.
11. T F If you know your partner, you can't get an STI.
12. T F Chlamydia is the most common STI.
13. T F A sexually active woman should get an annual pap test from her doctor.

Short answer questions:

14. What advice would you give someone who thought s/he might have a STI?

15. How can you avoid getting an STI?

From Beyond the Basics: A Sourcebook on Sexuality and Reproductive Health Education. CFSH 2005. For more information about the Sourcebook and how to obtain a copy, please check www.cfsh.ca or call 613-241-4474 ext 244.